Activities

Homecoming

Neither the rain nor the defeat seemed to crush the Homecoming Spirit. Our Spirit began to climb on Thursday night at the Pep Assembly and Bonfire. The Sophomore pep skit beat the upperclassmen in producing fun and frolic. The windows took on a new dimension when they were painted on the glass proving to be much more colorful. The gym was decorated as a football field with music by The Portraits.

Diane Shaw, Linda Crawford, Rosemary Losch, Chris Baus, Steve Wetter, Mark Wolf, Don Duncan, Tom Knapp.

Sadie Hawkins

Debby Slaght, Danny Slaght, Debby Kelly, Rebecca Duncan (Queen), John Burton (King), Judie Eng, Mike McCarville, Jean Bennett, Chuck Swab.

Mini-Plays

The Miracle: Steve Meyers, Cheryl Hudson, Tom Luhman, Kathy Eddy.

Silent Snow: Diane Peterson, Sheri Moore, Pat Krogman.

This year, instead of one large play production, the Speech Classes under the direction of Mrs. Elston presented four short plays. It was four times as much fun.

Hyman Kaplan: Mike Christensen.

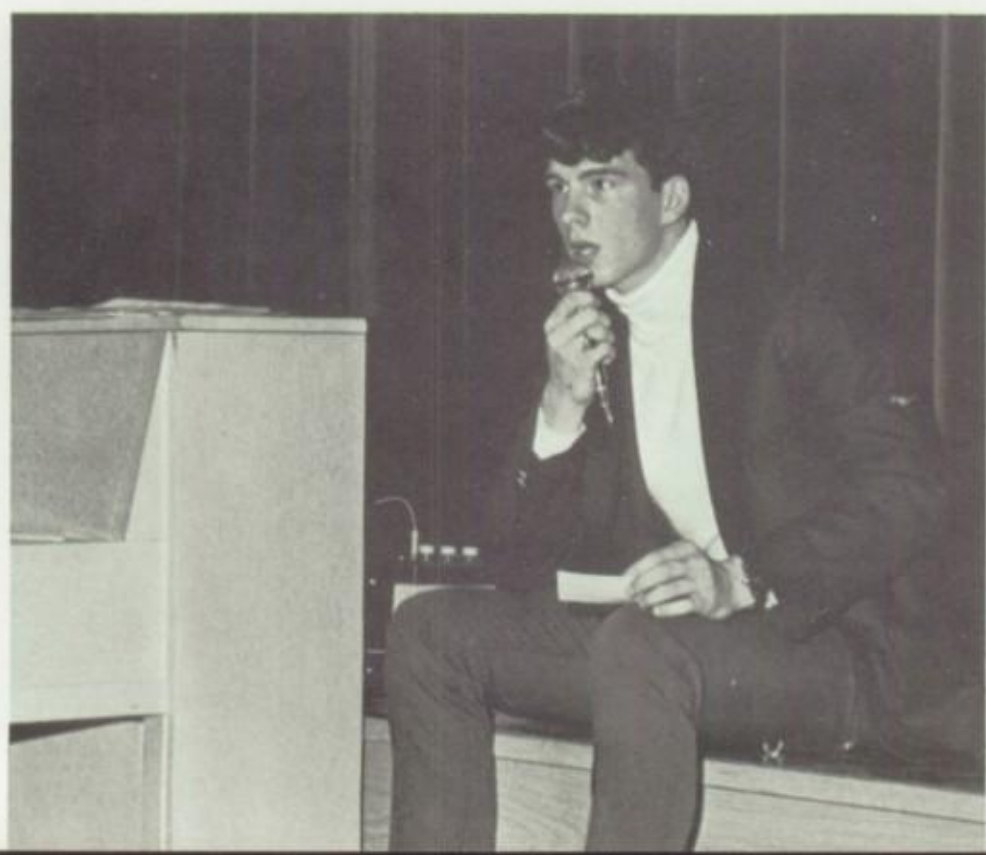

The Sandbox: Kris Haskins, Greg Kujawa.

Director: Mrs. Anne Elston.

Junior Prom

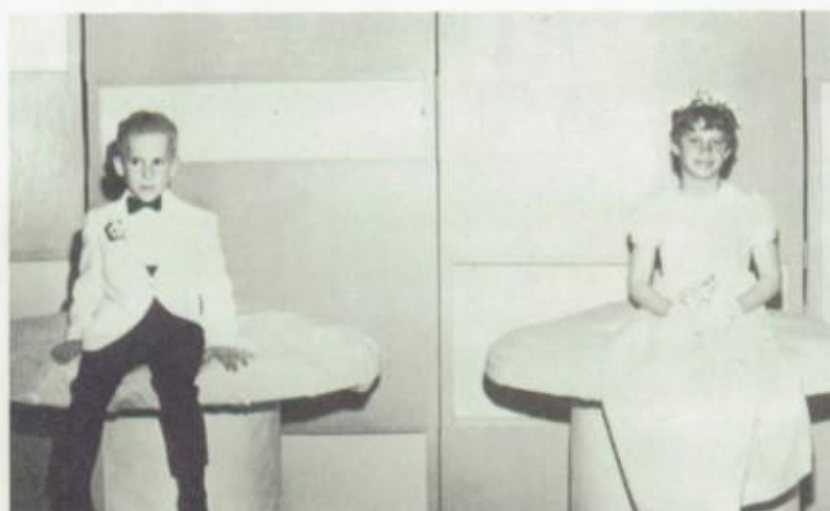

The theme of the 1970 Junior Prom was "This Magic Moment". The gym was transformed into a child-like fantasy land. The prom itself was reigned over by King Phil Wagner, Queen Cindy Bloch, and their court.

Varsity Basketball

The 1969-1970 basketball squad finished with a record of ten wins and eight losses. The record, however, is not the true evidence of how great this team really was. As they played each game, they played not only to win for themselves, but for the school and the community, and as a result placed high in a strong conference. A real climax to the season came in the tournaments where the Flying Arrows defeated strong Boscobel and Fennimore teams to be declared District Tournament Champions of 1970.

Jr. Varsity Basketball

Jr. Varsity Basketball: The 69-70 basketball season for the class of '72 proved that our varsity will have a well balanced team for the next two years. Despite some heart-breaking losses, the team played hard and scored and rebounded well. The team as a whole showed their determination to win when after losing their two starting guards to the varsity, they kept alive their winning record.

Winter Sports Queen

Winter Sports Queen: The 1969-1970 Winter Sports Queen was Barb Schneider. She was chosen by the "L" Club on the basis of her sports' interest, activities and personality. As queen Barb reigned over both a wrestling match, basketball game, and Blue and Gold Day. Barb has been a cheerleader for two years and was elected captain of the wrestling cheerleading squad during the 1970 wrestling year.

AFS Club

Kathy Eddy became Lancaster's first American Abroad as she became part of the AFS Chapter and traveled to Sao Paulo, Brazil.

In addition to learning the language and customs of this South American society, Kathy also taught English in a public school and furthered the Brazilian knowledge of the American way of life.

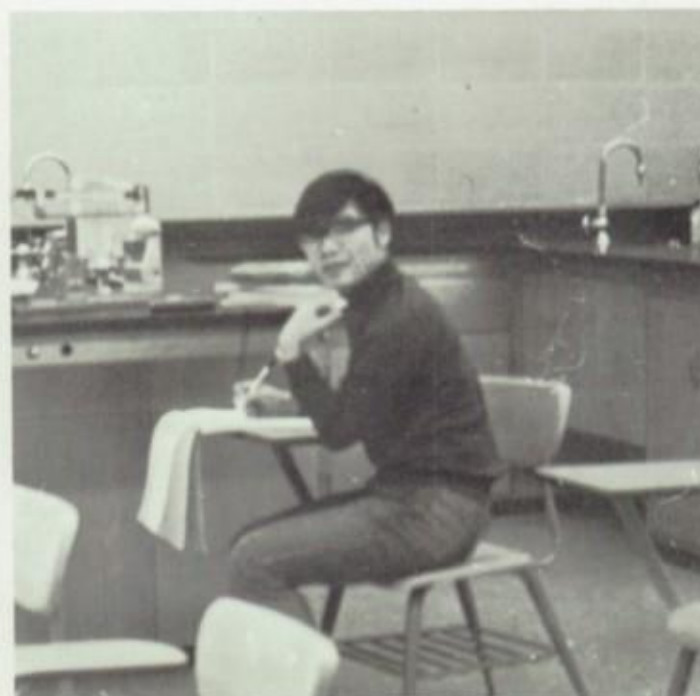

Kathy not only became part of a society, but an important member of a Brazilian family. She shared the Brazilian family environment in an effort to bring it to America as part of her life.

Masa

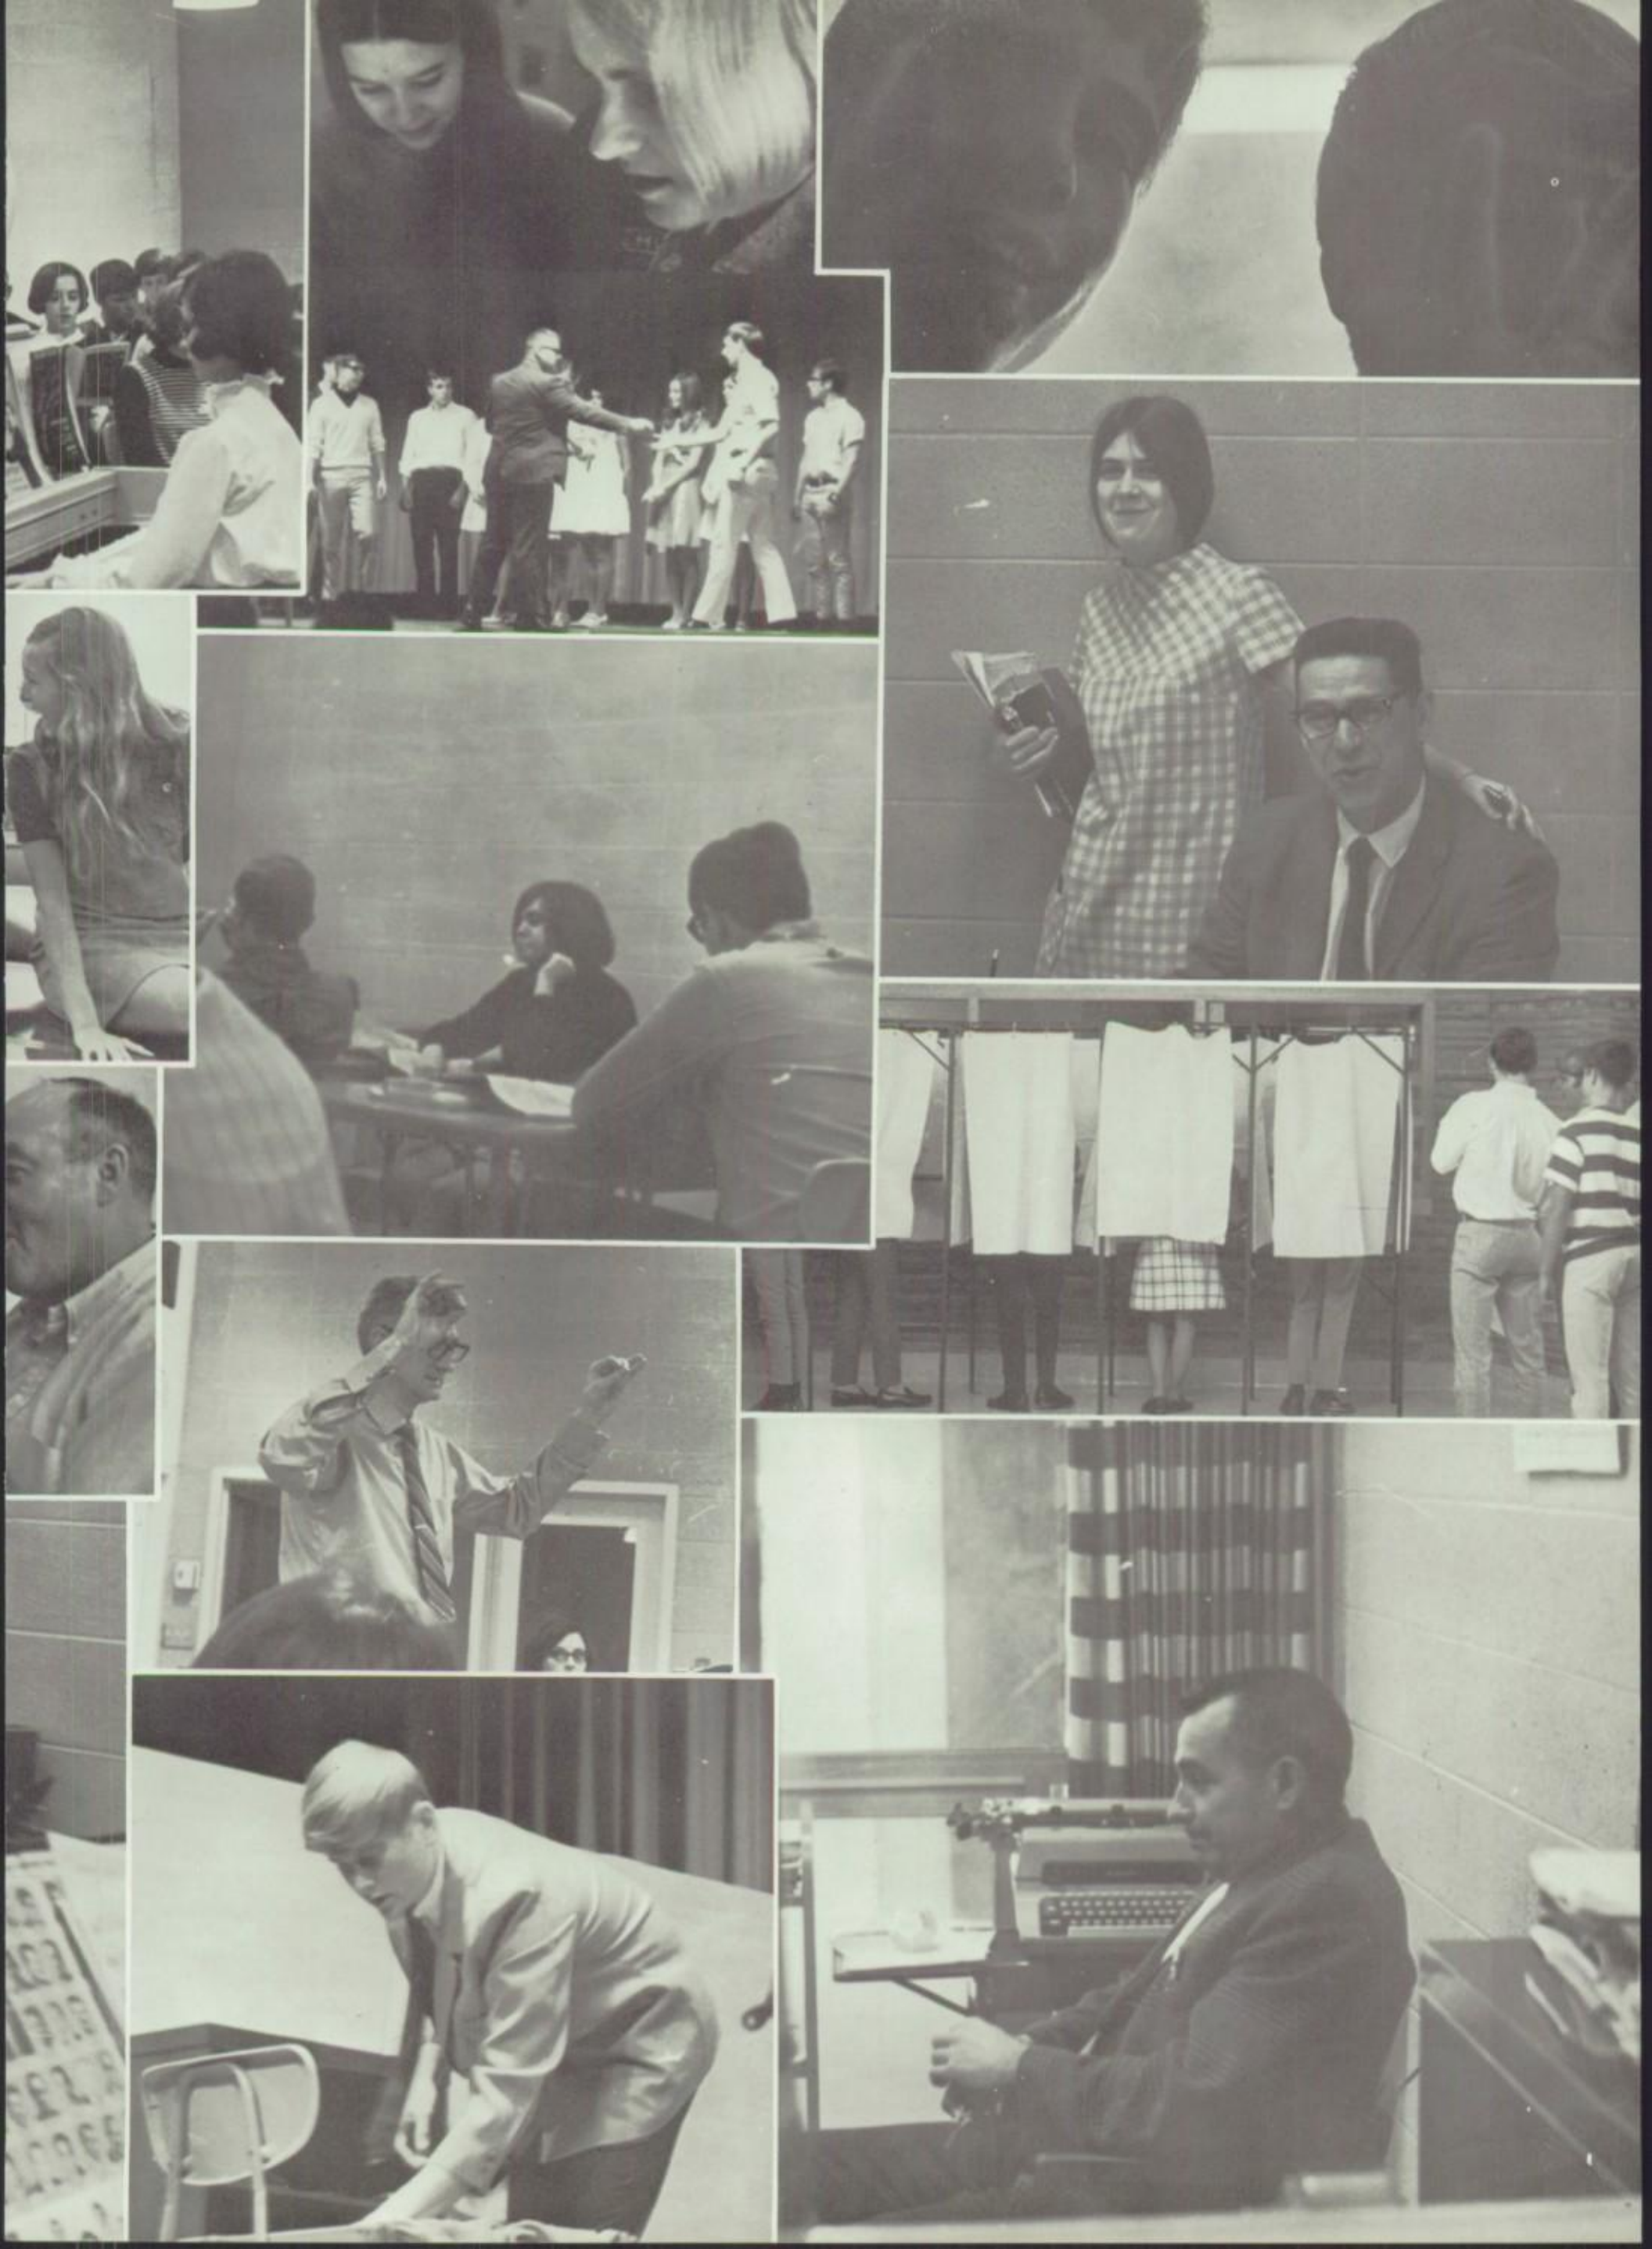

Masanori Yamanami came to Lancaster from Japan as our AFS Student. His name was quickly shortened to "Masa" as he became an important addition to the community and especially the school.

Masa's personality gave him many friends who will always remember his friendliness. He taught us as much about his society as he learned about ours. It developed into a learning as well as a friendly relationship.
